Public Input – Rose and Tim Fischer were present. They live on a farm outside of Pleasant Grove. She questioned if the notify me button was available for all things posted on the County website. County Auditor Sara Doty informed her that it is only available for when Board of Supervisor meetings are posted. She will look into seeing if it can be an option for other postings as well.

Laura Blanchard was also present for the meeting. She requested any future wind ordinance meetings that we hold, be held after hours for those who have to work during the day. Robert Garretson seconded that request. Ryan Nagrocki, Midwest Realty, spoke on the housing project they are working on at Sundown Apartments and requesting the county's match for the project. Total renovation is a little over 2.3 million dollars. They are requesting $1,000 per unit from the county, with 56 total units. They have invested a little over a million dollars in this project so far.

Mike Buster, Burlington, states that Midwest Realty is working towards positive changes. He informs the Board of Supervisors that he currently resides in the Sundown Apartments and supports the project. He states the living conditions, the amount of crime taking place, and the amount of sex offenders that live in the apartments, need immediate attention. A lot of the tenants living out there do not take care of the property. There is trash everywhere, grass is not kept cut, and apartments are not kept in good condition. He states that he sees the Sheriff's Department out there more than once a week, taking care of a situation. Glendening added in that there have been very violent crimes, sex offenders coming in from near and far, drug issues, and overdoses that have been taking place at the apartments. He supports the positive changes Nagrocki is working towards. Nagrocki stated that there are three tenants that will remain housed after they purchased the property. The rest have been evicted.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:33 a.m.

Following the meeting a work session was held regarding the wind ordinance. Roughly 60 people were in attendance for the work session. Cary announced the start of the meeting and read the rules for the public. If you wish to speak, please see Brian Carter with the sign-up sheet. He stated that the Board of Supervisors are interested in hearing everyone's thoughts. Please be respectful of all speakers and don't interrupt. Each speaker was allowed 3 minutes to speak and give the Board any information they wish. During the work session, they heard from a few of those in attendance. Evie Sorrell, an AES Representative from Boulder Colorado, started the meeting. Melanie Patten, Mt. Pleasant, spoke next.
